MAMMOTH MUSHROOM FOUND

ON A PRESTON FARM

Much surprise was expressed at the quick growth which is made by these mushrooms and what appears to be a very large one was found near the house a great white mushroom almost round which he believed to be a button mushroom and which he believed to exhibit in the garden.

Thursday evening some corn had been cut for the cattle in the garden and nothing was seen of it. Friday morning the mushroom was found by the son of the owner who he found the great ball which he at first thought was a pumpkin but upon investigation found it was a mushroom. The weather was very dry and the ground was very hard.

Asked if she was going to cook it, Mrs. Underwood replied: "Sure, I'll cook it," but she afterwards stated that she was going to give it to the county fair if it could be kept that long.

THE CHELSEA PRIMER TELLS

WHY, HOW AND WHERE TO HAVE

The Chelsea Primer is a handy and informative little book just issued by the Chelsea Savings bank, Norwich, Charles E. Chandler, president. It is really a little catechism in ten brief chapters, treating of the various subjects of the bank's business, such as general banking, savings, insurance, and so on.
